BACKGROUND/DESCRIPTION

Are you an Israeli or Singapore company looking for partners to co-innovate on product development, tap on R&D funding and access new markets? This opportunity might just be what you are looking for!

The Singapore-Israel Industrial R&D Foundation (SIIRD) aims to promote, facilitate and support joint R&D projects between Singapore and Israeli companies to create innovative products and applications, with the end goal of commercialisation. SIIRD is a collaboration between Enterprise Singapore (EnterpriseSG) and the Israel Innovation Authority (IIA), and funding support will be provided for Singapore and Israeli companies whose projects are approved.

The call for proposals is open to all sectors, with the exception of pure military-use products. Enhanced support will also be offered for projects in the following sectors:

- Agritech and Foodtech
- Healthtech

More information about the submission process can be found on the SIIRD website, along with the full set of application templates.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION

The project consortium must involve at least one Singapore company and one Israeli company, independent from each other. Each project partner should contribute no more than 70% of the total project budget.

Under this programme, SIIRD will support up to 60% of the total qualifying project costs. To be eligible for support, the Singapore applicant must fulfil all of the following:

- Be a business entity that is registered and physically present in Singapore;
- Does not hold  $\geq 20\%$  shares in their partner; and
- Be financially able to see a project through to completion.

CALL DETAILS

Application Process

- The consortium to submit the full set of project application documents (templates downloadable from SIIRD website) by 23 February 2023
- Singapore companies will be required to submit an online application form linked here.
- Israeli companies will be required to submit an online application form via the IIA's portal.
- Both of the above must be submitted.

Funding Benefits
